November 2006

Corner...

Deb Conrad, Council President

November has arrived, and with it a variety of PTA activities. Many PTA programs should be underway by the local units, such as membership and general PTA meetings to inform members about what each unit is doing. Some units have contacted me to purchase a membership. I hope to be a member of every unit, and so do Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Paterson.

The 91st Missouri State PTA Convention was held Oct. 6-8th at Tan-Tar-A in Osage Beach. Those in attendance had the opportunity to attend various workshops, listen to several inspiration speakers, network with other units, council and state PTA officers and take part in our annual state meeting. Local PTA units as well as council were represented. Look for more information about convention in this and coming issues.

During the state PTA convention, Reflections winner for 2005-2006 are recognized at the Youth Awards Showcase. This year's event was held on Saturday Oct. 7. Several St. Joseph students made the trip to Tan-Tar-A to receive their awards in person (Anya Hopkins-Eugene Field Elementary and Donald (Rexie) Planalp, Jr.-Coleman Elementary). It was truly a pleasure to see so many youth displaying their various works.

Don't forget about Reflections. This year's theme is My Favorite Place. It is easy for the time to slip by and before we know it the Reflections deadline will be here (January 18, 2007). Start this project early. Your school's art and music teachers have received information on the program. Please ask them what your PTA unit can do to help them. This is a great opportunity to showcase at a state and national level some of the awesome artists, photographers and musicians in our district. In addition, two new categories have been added this year: dance choreography and video/film production.

In November, we also celebrate American Education Week. This year the event will be held at the East Hills Mall November 13-17, 2006. A variety of activities will be scheduled from musical performances to art displays. This is a great opportunity to come out and see what is going on in the Saint Joseph Public Schools. It is a combined effort by the Saint Joseph area PTA Council, MSTA, NEA and the school districts Fine Arts Department. Don't miss it!

Finally, with November upon us, The Saint Joseph PTA Council and I would like to wish each of you a Happy Thanksgiving. Take time out of your busy schedules to relax and enjoy family and friends. It's a great way to re-energize for the winter ahead.

Convention Report

As a representative of the St. Joseph PTA Council, I attended the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers 91st Annual Convention at Tan-Tar-A Resort, Osage Beach, MO. The event was held October 6-8, 2006, and those in attendance had a large selection of workshops, general meetings and speakers to fill the days. Training opportunities in areas such as membership, advocacy, leadership and marketing were my target areas.

During the leadership training, Dr. Henry Russell, Depute Superintendent of the Independence School District teamed up with Kathy Nevans, Missouri PTA President to engage us in viewing leadership as creativity and outlined nine concept key to leadership. Leadership and creativity were emphasized through the viewing of a short film by DeWitt Jones, National Geographic Photographer. It is amazing how connections can be found.

How to Market Your PTA and the membership presentations go hand in hand. These workshops offered a few key points to remember. The best way to market your PTA is to be welcoming and inclusive. Information should be given in a concise and relevant manner through sources like your general meetings and a newsletter. Purchasing memberships does obligate parents to volunteer but does give them a voice. Finally, we all get asked, "Why PTA?" PTA represents all students; other organizations only represent children in a specific school. PTA provides state and national support and guidance through bylaws, resolutions and media (like newsletters, Our Children Magazine, Contract Magazine, websites and e-mails). Most importantly, PTA provides legislative support and advocacy for issues related to our children.

Advocacy may be the strongest component of PTA membership. One of the PTA purposes is to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth. We should all know that our voice does matter, but collectively our voice is 83,000 strong. PTA has helped create kindergarten classes, child labor laws, public health services, hot lunch programs, a juvenile justice system and mandatory immunizations. During the convention, Missouri PTA passed several resolutions that will be advocated this year. These include: Teen Drivers and Cell Phones, Driver's Education and Training, Increasing Bonding Capacity to 15% for School Districts and A Simple Majority Vote on School Bonds.

In conclusion, those in attendance had the opportunity to hear the wit and wisdom of several dynamic speakers and were honored by having Anna Weselak, National PTA President in attendance. During the Friday night general meeting, Dr. Charles Brown spoke to the group about the challenges he faces as acting superintendent for the East St. Louis School District (on leave from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education). During his thirty plus years as an educator, he had important information for us about taking an active role in our children's education and the results when people are not engaged in their community. Saturday evening, the keynote speaker was Girard "Jerry" Thornton, Missouri Teacher of the Year for 2005-06. Mr. Thornton teaches physical education in the Francis Howell R-III School District and has worked as a blacksmith. He emphasized the physical education is just the vehicle through which he can teach children good citizenship, cooperation, safety, friendship, loyalty and sportsmanship.

If you didn't have the opportunity to attend convention this year, please consider it for next year. Another training opportunity will be coming in Spring 2007 at the annual Leadership Conference (more information in the coming months). It is an important tool for training and re-energizing your PTA leaders and members. Next year's convention will be held in Columbia and the following year will be in North Kansas City. So please consider supporting your members to engage in these activities.

History of American Education Week

The National Education Association was one of the creators and original sponsors of American Education Week.

Distressed that 25 percent of the country's World War I draftees were illiterate and 29 percent were physically unfit, representatives of the NEA (National Education Association) and the American Legion met in 1919 to seek ways to generate public support for education.

The conventions of both organizations subsequently adopted resolutions of support for a national effort to raise public awareness of the importance of education. In 1921, the NEA Representative Assembly in Des Moines, Iowa, called for designation of one week each year to spotlight education. In its resolution, the NEA called for: "An educational week...observed in all communities annually for the purpose of informing the public of the accomplishments and needs of the public schools and to secure the cooperation and support of the public in meeting those needs."

The first observance of American Education Week occurred December 4-10, 1921, with the NEA and American Legion as the cosponsors. A year later, the then U.S. Office of Education joined the effort as a cosponsor, and the PTA followed in 1938.

In the earliest observances, there was a different theme for each day of American Education Week. But in 1929 that changed as representatives of the sponsoring groups came together to select a single theme, reflecting a current national concern.

Thus, history is still alive today as we celebrate the 84th year of American Education Week with our theme this year, "A Strong America Starts with Great Public Schools."

To File or not to File

Many of us in PTA don't know if or when to file a Tax Exempt tax return (Form 990 or 990EZ). We all know we aren't paying taxes, but the IRS still likes to see what were doing. I hope that I can help you to determine whether your PTA should file.

You need to file if your gross receipts are over $25,000. That means that even if you didn't keep all the money you collected from that fundraiser, you still collected it and that is reflected in your gross income. You need to look at all deposits taken in for your fiscal year.

If you need to file, the due date is the 15th day of the 5th month after the last day of your fiscal year. OR

Fiscal year ends	Tax return due date
May 30	October 15
June 30	November 15
July 31	December 15
August 31	January 15

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Davis-Langemach/Kosek PTA Council Award of Excellence

Background

The “Davis-Langemach/Kosek PTA Council Award of Excellence” is named after Mrs. True Davis, Sr., and Mrs. Vernon Langemach, both highly admired St. Joseph ladies, who are past State PTA Presidents. This award is also in honor of Mrs. Sharon Kosek who is a past St. Joseph PTA Council President and Legislative chair.

Determination of Winner

The administrator, teacher, or staff member, who has been nominated, must have made a major difference in the life of a student of the St. Joseph School District. It should be something that will be of major impact in the child’s life and must have taken place between the first day of school and the last day of school.

A nomination may be made by a parent/family member, administrator, teacher, staff person, or other adult community member. (No self nominations please.)

The administrator of the nominee as well as the nominating party must sign the form to assure validity.

Each month one winner will be selected and recognized by the St. Joseph PTA Council. The winner will be awarded a certificate of recognition. In addition, a book valued at $25 will be given in honor of the winner to the school where they are employed. If they are not employed at a school, then they may select which school will receive the book.

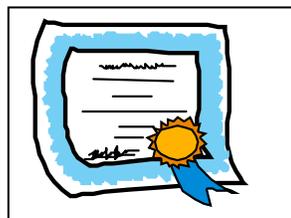

An impartial panel of three individuals will determine the winners. The panel will include a school district official, a PTA Council representative, and a local parent.

Nominations submitted will be kept for consideration for that school year unless they are chosen as a winner.

The child’s name will not be released to the public.

In order to be considered as the next month’s award recipient, three copies of the nomination must be received by the 20th of the previous month. The first award will be in September.
